Admission for PhD (Energy) 2020

The guideline for the selection of candidates for PhD (Energy) is given below:

1. The merit list of the eligible candidates for the selection for PhD (Energy) programme will be based on online test (60% weightage) and Personal Interview (40% weightage).
2. The Online test consists of MCQ type questions (syllabus as per the admission brochure) and submission of Statement of Purpose (SOP). The Statement of Purpose, within 1000 Words, should include his/her intended area of research.
3. The Personal Interview (PI) will be conducted through online video mode only.
4. All the applicants of PhD (Energy) admission (2020) will be called for the online test and PI by Emails (No separate call letter will be issued).
5. The online test will be conducted on 21st August (Friday) during 11:00 AM to 12:00 noon
6. The PI for PhD will be held on 24th (Monday) and 25th (Tuesday) August 2020 in two sessions viz., (a) 10 AM – 1:00 PM and (b) 2:30 PM – 5:30 PM as per schedule provided at Annexure I with this notification.
7. For Online test and Personal Interview (PI), the applicants need to use devices capable of video (and audio) meeting (chatting), so that the applicant is visible during the Online test and PI.
8. It is the responsibility of the candidate to arrange the device with video call facilities and internet network for the online test and PI. Department of Energy will not be responsible for not appearing in the online test/PI because of error/issue in the device and network at the applicant's end.
9. Because of any situation, if an applicant does not appear/complete the online test and/or PI, the applicant may be marked as absent. However, permission to reappear PI on genuine reasons (in the subsequent session within the Schedule) may be allowed on approval of the Departmental Examination Board.
10. Google Form will be used for the online test, so applicants are asked to get familiarise with the Google Form.
