2020 has been a wearying year for all of us. The covid-19 pandemic has brought out huge changes to people's lives. Amidst the hard times of the year, the MA program of the department of Assamese was started and the usual academic activities and mentoring sessions for the academic year 2020-21 were taken online. Through the mentoring sessions, I have told mentees about the aim and objectives of the MA program and tried to develop a mentor-mentee rapport. I have taken one session per week to discuss the mentee's problems, complaints, academic performance, health issues, and other issues related to them.
