

Biswajit is presently working in the position of Chief Manager with the Lines of Credit (LOC) Group of India Exim Bank at New Delhi. LOC is the Development Assistance program of the Government of India and is governed by the Indian Development and Economic Assistance Scheme (IDEAS). Under LOC, Biswajit manages credit lines provided by Government of India to developing countries across the continents.

Prior to the assignment, he was working with the Corporate Banking Group of the India Exim Bank in Mumbai. It is the commercial business of the Bank, majorly funding Cross Border investment deals, capital expenditures of Indian corporate houses with the objective of increase India's foreign trade. Having lived and worked in India and China, Biswajit on deals for funding investments across Europe, the USA, South/Central America, Australia, Africa, and Asia.

Graduated from the Fudan University, Shanghai with the Honor of 'Outstanding Graduate' in Finance and was also the recipient of the China Development Bank's Scholarship under BRICS Interbank Corporation Mechanism. Biswajit is also alumnus of the School of Management Sciences, Tezpur University and he was the Gold medallist of the of the MBA batch of 2010-12. Biswajit has done his graduation in Economics from Cotton College with First Class and Distinction.