They have good remarks about the standard of tests and assignments and overall rating of the course. They have very positive remarks pertaining to pace of teaching, clarity of expression and accessibility of the respective course instructors outside the class. Their feedback reveals that the teachers maintain regularity and punctuality in the class as per time table. The teachers encourage question and discussion and are fair and un-biased in the evaluation process. Overall students are having positive remarks about the course instructors and the method of deliberating and delivering in and outside the classes.

Consolidated report on Action taken for the Spring and Autumn Semester, 2023

After going through the feedback of the students and as per the suggestions received from the individual faculties based on the students feedback of their respective courses, it was decided that further initiatives will be taken to enhance the satisfaction level of the students by adopting innovative pedagogies of teaching- learning through case study discussion, more use of current reports published by National and International organizations relating to the topic of discussion, motivating the students to read reference books and research articles. Accordingly, the faculties in Spring Semester 2024 have used practical-based assignments, case studies, research articles from reputed journals and newspapers etc. in the Spring Semester 2024.
