About the Workshop

Education is crucial for the achievement of Sustainable Development. Providing Quality Education for all is fundamental to create a peaceful and prosperous world. Education for Sustainable Development (ESD) is a vision of education which gives students the knowledge, skills, attitudes and values to become socially responsible global citizens and shape a sustainable future. ESD covers the three pillars of sustainability – environmental, social and economic issues. Higher Education Institutions can integrate Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs) into their curriculum, campus operation and innovation, that cater to one or a combination of more goals under the SDGs. The objectives of the workshop are as follows:

- To develop policy guidelines and suggest innovative and sustainable solutions for quality enhancement.
- To suggest new courses or programs with direct focus on sustainability.
- To recommend SDGs relevant topics in existing courses or programs.
