ED113: Professionalism in Teacher Education

Course Objectives:
On completion of this course the students will be able to:
- Understand concept of Profession and Professionalism
- Analyse and apply professional attitude, skills and values
- Apply professional ethics in their teaching process
- Know and understand policy perspectives in teacher education for being professional
- Understand role of ICT towards professional development
- Understand various teacher education programmes and challenges involved

UNIT-I: Understanding Teaching as a Profession
- Concept of Profession and Professionalism
- Professional attitude, professional knowledge, skill and values
- Role of Code of Conduct in maintaining Professionalism
- Professional development through interpersonal relations

UNIT-II: Continuing Professional Development in Teaching
- Policy perspectives and recommendations regarding teacher education made by various commissions and committees
- Role of ICT towards professional development

Unit-III: Teacher Education Programmes and Agencies
- Components of professionalism in Pre-service and In-service teacher education programme
- Agencies of Teacher Education- NCERT, SCERT, IASEs, CTEs, DIETs in creating Professionalism
- Role of NCTE in imparting quality of teacher education with an emphasis on Professionalism
- Quality assurance in teacher education: challenges and interventions

Text Books:

References Books:
3. Position paper national focus group on Teacher education for curriculum renewal. NCERT, New Delhi.