

NAPSWI WEEK

DATE: 16.08.2024

1. POSTER MAKING

The Department of Social Work, Tezpur University observed 5th National Social Work week with week long programme. On the very 1st day of social work week with poster making competition on the theme 'Challenges Faced by Children In School Settings'. It fostered awareness about challenges faced by children in school settings, provided a platform for participants to share their perspective and insights through artistry. Esteemed judges Dr. Gitanjali Ghosh and Dr. Angel Syiem from the Department of Law, presided over the competition and remarked on the event throughout.

2. PANEL DISCUSSION

A panel discussion on the topic of 'School Social Work Opportunities and Challenges' in specific to 'Beta padhao aur Beti Bachao' was also organized on the first day of National Social work Week to promote educating sons, unlearning prejudices and relearning new practices and empowering daughters. The panel was chaired by out student Cynthia with esteemed professors, students and research scholars who participated as panelists. The event was highly interactive and a Q & A session between the panellists and attendees. It ran smoothly and addressed current issues relevant to the initiative.

DATE: 17.08.2024

MOVIE SCREENING

A short movie screening named game of cast was held to create awareness and encourage dialogue on the deep rooted issues of caste in the society. The film explored the complexities of the caste system providing a platform for students to engage in meaningful discussion on discrimination privilege and Social justice. The screening not only enhanced the economic learning experience but also first third space for critical reflection on the role of social workers in promoting equality and inclusivity.

1. STREET PLAY

The street play was performed by the students of the Department aimed to raise our voice against all forms of serious violence against women (VAW) in specific to recent rape and violence against women. The street play encouraged the youth to take action and not to be mute spectators. The team created a powerful and impactful performance through dialogues to connect with the audiences. The portrayal of the trauma faced by the victims of violence

DATE: 19.08.2024

1. POEM WRITING

The poem writing competition on the theme 'Mental Health and Children', has been a successful event which attracted enthusiastic participants. The talented participants crafted beautiful poems that showcase the power of words in addressing this critical issue . All entries demonstrated exceptional efforts in highlighting the importance of children's mental well being. Notably, Dr. Prerana Banik, workshop coordinator of our Department also recited an original poem on the theme which further enriched the event.

2. ARTICLE WRITING

The article writing competition on the theme of 'School Social Work: Enhancing Safe Spaces' was held on the occasion of National Social Work week, which was thought provoking and let everyone introspect on ideas on the crucial role of social work in creating a safe and supportive environment. The contest invited writers to submit their original articles exploring the significance of coal social work in promoting emotional well being, preventing bullying and fostering inclusive classrooms innovative strategies to and hands safe faces in schools.

DATE: 20.08.2024

1. Workshop by Social Work Practitioner

Anindita Gogoi, a social work Practitioner from Charaideo district of Sivasagar, Assam was invited to organize a workshop on experiences of Community library. It was very kind of her that she shared the stage with us who put forward her inspiring work with children in her own district. Her dedicated work for the upliftment of dropout students which encourage her to set up community libraries, study areas and free of cost tutoring is such inspiring and noble work which is undoubtedly worthy of praise and path to be followed by social workers.

DATE: 21.08.2024

1. ALUMNI-STUDENTS INTERACTIVE SESSION

Alumni-students interactive session was a session where Tezpur University Social work Department alumni consented to come for an interactive session. They shared their present experiences and also shared how MSW helped them in shaping their life. They also added the scope of Social work overall and talked about their working experiences. Their passion for the field inspired and motivated the students.

2. FOOD AND CRAFT STALL BY THE STUDENTS AND RESEARCH SCHOLARS

The social work week has ended with a beautiful event. Two creative students have showcased their artistry with their handmade products. Along with that, few students and research scholars have sold very delicious and tasty traditional foods at the event. The whole event was so vibrant and everyone's active participation enlightened the whole social work week.