

National Conclave on Synergizing Knowledge, Policy and Practice for Vulnerable Children, Youths and Women

Organised by
Tezpur University in Collaboration with UNICEF

Date: December 14-16, 2019

About the Conclave:

The two-and-half-day conclave with five interactive sessions in the format of panel discussion aims to find approaches to cross-partners' synergies for effective dialogue processes and participation of stakeholders. The outcome of the conclave will set the initial stage for mainstreaming research and academics integrated into policy and practice through engaged discourse on issues of children, youths and women from a multi-stakeholder perspective.

Thematic Sessions:

1. Creating Advocates for Social Change; Developing Pedagogy for Children, Youths and Women
2. Women as Creators of Change
3. Social Innovation
4. Vulnerability Narratives of Communities and Instruments of Coping
5. Young Champions: Youth Participation in Decision Making Platforms / Processes

Key - Note Speaker: Dr Karen Winter, School of Social Sciences, Education and Social Work, Queen's University, Belfast

Note for Participants:

- Limited seats: participation in the conclave is through invitation from the organiser. Those who are interested in attending the conclave can write to nationalconclave2019@gmail.com.
- The participants are kindly requested to make their own arrangement for accommodation, meals and travel. Tea and lunch will be provided at the conference venue.

For more details on the conclave kindly go to the link: