

Let your pen do the talking Let your keyboard help you thinking

We're accepting submissions till Wednesday, the 31st of January 2018, 5PM for

The Bimal Bhagwati Essay Competition

Open for any bonafide FEMALE student of Tezpur University, perusing any program from UG to Doctoral level (but NOT of School of Management Sciences).

Topic for 2018 Version : "Will GST Make India One Market?"

The Bijoy Chandra Bhagwati Essay Competition

Open for any bonafide student of the School of Management Sciences, Tezpur University, perusing any program from UG to Doctoral level.

Topic for 2018 Version : "Recapitalisation Of Public Sector Banks"

For each categories :

- ✓ Award for Best adjudged essay : INR 10,000//Runners Up : INR 5,000
- ✓ Entries are to be written in English, of ideally between 2000 – 3000 words, and be ethically free of any attempts of plagiarism, and not be submitted elsewhere either for competition and/or publication.
- ✓ Layout of submission :
 - Top page
 - Topic / Theme (exactly as provided above)
 - Author's name, enrolment no, hostel, contact details
 - Next page onwards
 - Body content of the essay, including references, explanatory note/s (with absolutely no indication of author's name, department or any other identifier). References, if any, are to be placed at end of essay on fresh page, in APA style
- ✓ Three copies of the print (in one single sealed envelope, on A4 paper, Times New Roman of font size 11, with 1.5 line gap) is to be deposited at Office of the Department of Business Administration latest by Wednesday, the 31st of January 2018, 5PM.
- ✓ In addition, anti-plagiarism check certificate from TU Central Library and softcopy of the essay (editable MS-Word version) is to be emailed by submission deadline to deanmgmt@tezu.ernet.in