

Tezpur University awarded Best Team at Parag Das Memorial All-Assam Inter-College Debate Competition

Carrying forward the rich tradition of high quality debate and discourse of Tezpur University, two students of the institution, Ms. Sneha Roy and Ms. Maitreyee Dutta bagged the Best Team at 21st Parag Das Memorial All-Assam Inter-College Debating competition held at the Assam State Museum, Guwahati recently. Both are students of department of English and Foreign Languages and won this coveted prize for the second time in a row. Ms. Sneha Roy also finished second in the individual category. A total of 30 participants from 14 different colleges/universities had participated in the competition. Cotton University and Gauhati University finished 2nd and 3rd respectively in the competition.

It is worth mentioning that Tezpur University have been securing Best Team since 2013 in the competition. The competition is organised in memory of late journalist Parag Kumar Das, who was also a well-known debater during his college days.
