

Tezpur University Observed Dr B. R. Ambedkar's 125th Birth Day and

Rashtriya Samrasata Divas on 14 April, 2016

Tezpur University's Department of Social Work in association with the neighbouring Samdhara Gaon Panchayat observed the 125th birth anniversary of Babasaheb Dr Bhimrao Ambedkar, the chief architect of the Constitution of India and a great champion of social justice as Rashtriya Samrasata Day on 14 April, 2016 at the Gaon Panchayat premises in presence of the village people assembled on the occasion. Floral tributes were offered in front of the portrait of Dr Ambedkar by Mrs Shabnam Begum, President of Samdhara Gaon Panchayat, Mr Dinesh Sarma, Secy. of the Panchayat, Prof. S. K. Dutta, Dr Bhim Sarma, Mr Rajesh K of Tezpur University and many others. Prof. S. K. Dutta explained the significance of the Rashtriya Samrasata Day and highlighted on the life and works of Dr Ambedkar. Mr Rajesh K explained about the various schemes to reduce inequality among the citizens. Dr Bhim Sarma and Mr Dinesh Sarma spoke on the contributions of Dr Ambedkar to the Indian political and social fields as well as the theme of Gram Uday Se Bharat Uday. The meeting was attended by a good number of people from the adjacent villages.

