

DEPARTMENTAL ORIENTATION PROGRAMME 2015

New student Orientation Programme was being organized by Department of Education, Tezpur University on 29 July, 2015 in the Humanities & Social Sciences (HSS) Building. This programme was meant for the newly admitted students of M. A. in Education and Integrated B.A. / B.Sc. B.Ed. programme. Prof. Pradip Jyoti Mahanta, Dean, School of Humanities and Social Sciences was present as the special invitee for the programme. He has emphasized on the greater role to be played by the teacher educators in improving the standard of education in India. At the same time, he inspired our students and encouraged them to avail the opportunities available at our campus for their holistic development. Sashapra Chakrawarty acted as a coordinator as well as hosted the introductory session. Dr. Anjali Sharma, Head, Department of Education, delivered the welcome speech. The technical session which was handled by Dr. Yeasmin Sultana covered information about the course structure, autumn schedule of classes, various resources and services available at Tezpur University campus. It was followed by an interaction session between the faculty members (Dr. Anjali Sharma, Dr. Yeasmin Sultana, Mrs. R. D. Padmavathy, Dr. Hitesh Sharma, Sashapra Chakrawarty and Dr. Pratima Pallai) and students of Department of Education. And finally the vote of thanks was proposed by Dr. Pratima Pallai.

