

Tezpur University receives grant under Indo-UK collaborative research initiative on “Bridging the Urban – Rural Divide”.

Tezpur University is receiving Rs 198.142 Lakhs from DST (SEED), Govt. of India to carry out research on a project “Rural Hybrid Energy Enterprise System (RHEES)” under Indo-UK collaborative research initiative on “Bridging the Urban – Rural Divide”. There are seven National Institutes and six UK partners including University of Nottingham, University of Birmingham, Liverpool Hope University, Loughborough University, Manchester Metropolitan and University of Leicester.