

2016-17 Research/Thesis Grant for MD/MS students from the North-Eastern Region

The Department of Biotechnology is committed to Human Resource Development in all biology-related disciplines. In order to match with raising standards of health & value of novel research tools in Health research, DBT is advertising its ongoing scheme titled Research grant to support MD/MS-thesis to Medical Students in North-Eastern Region under its NER program for 2016-2017. The proposal is to:

- Fund MD/MS-thesis research in medical colleges involving valid scientific hypothesis using modern biology/molecular biology/biotechnological tools on various themes dealing with human health/ infectious diseases/chronic diseases.
- The amount of Rs. 1.10 lakhs will be given as a research/thesis and grant of Rs. 0.20 lakh each would be provided for travel and symposia for the student and supervisor.
- The Medical College may involve collaboration with another institution or another department within the same institution having a capability of supporting research in modern biology to undertake studies
- The proposal would be assessed by an Expert Selection Committee and the results will be communicated to the applicant.

How to Apply

Applications will be available on request by email (dbt\_nc@tezu.ernet.in) addressed to Prof. R.C. Deka Joint Co-ordinator, DBT Nodal Cell, Tezpur University. All completed applications must be submitted by email (dbt\_nc@tezu.ernet.in) along with one hard copy of the completed application with all enclosures and labelled “MD/MS Grant Application” on the envelope on or before 15th January, 2017. The application must be sent by speed post to Prof. R.C. Deka, Joint Coordinator, DBT Nodal Cell, Tezpur University, Napaam, Tezpur, 784028, Assam.