

Tezpur University, Assam

Action Taken Report on Celebration of Matribhasha Diwas on 21 Feb, 2018

Tezpur University (TU) celebrated the Matribhasha Diwas (International Mother Language Day) on 21/02/2018 at the Centre for Assamese Studies, Tezpur University with great enthusiasm. The University organised an elocution competition in two languages, Hindi and Assamese amongst its students. The topic of the competition was “Importance of Mother Tongue for Mental and Intellectual Development”. Top 3 position holders in each category were awarded with cash prizes and certificates. The celebrations were also marked by a chorus performance and a one act play by the non-Assamese speaking students. Dr. Arup Kumar Nath, Asst. Professor, Dept. of English & Foreign Languages and Mr. Kul Prasad Upadhayay, Hindi Officer of the University judged the performance of the competitors.

The details of the winners are mentioned below:

Winners in Hindi medium

1st Position-Mr. Kumar Saurabh, Ph.D. student, Dept. of Hindi

2nd Position- Ms. Preeti Prakash, Ph.D. student, Dept. of Hindi

3rd Position- Mr. Vijay Kumar Singh, M.Tech student, Dept. of Computer Science & Engineering

Winners in Assamese Medium

1st Position- Mr. Akhyai Jyoti Mahanta, M.A. student, Dept. of Sociology

2nd Position- Ms. Radali Sharma, M.A. student, Dept. English & Foreign Languages

3rd Position- Mr. Madhab Upadhyaya, B.Ed. student, Dept. of Education

