NOTIFICATION

EOI for Development of Video Module

TU/TLC/EOI-01/19

Date: 23/04/19

Teaching Learning Centre, Tezpur University invites Expression of Interest (EOI) from faculty members to develop e-resources in the form of sub-titled (in English language and vernacular languages) learning video of around 30 minutes on a topic of their own interest in respective specialized area. As the target audiences are students and other learners of higher education, the topic should be contemporary and relevant in the regional, national or global context. The contributor should also be able to expand the topic (forward and/or backward) at a later date for development of more resources so as to cover an entire course.

Interested faculty members of Tezpur University may like to send a mail expressing their interest in the given format along with a brief note on her/his expertise in the chosen area. The EOI should also mention the scope for future expansion of the topic in order to make it a full course.

The video modules will be developed on quarterly basis for the financial year 2019 – 2020. Contributors have to clearly mention the proposed quarter in time frame. Please be informed that extension of time will not be possible.

TLC shall try to accommodate as many standard proposals within its limited resources subject to screening by an Expert Committee.

TLC shall arrange for videography (as per convenience of the contributor) and final editing of the video. The contributor shall also be responsible for submitting a publishable content, and transcript of the lecture, which will be available for download by the side of the video. TLC envisages to publish the content in the form of a handbook for free dissemination.

A nominal honorarium will be offered for the input of the contributors.

The final clip shall be uploaded in the TLC, TU webpage with a link to the “Teaching Learning Centre, Tezpur University” YouTube Channel. Due credit shall be given to the contributor and her/his name shall appear prominently in the video. However, such videos shall be available to the viewers free of cost and no advertisement shall be intentionally associated with it.

It is needless to mention that the contributor of the video (content and the transcript) should strictly adhere to all IPR related issues, and TLC, TU shall not share responsibility of violation, if any.

The EOI format for development of video module is available in the following link:
