Tezpur University

(December 28, 2020-January 02, 2021)

Department of Assamese, Tezpur University in collaboration with Teaching Learning Centre (TLC), Tezpur University is organizing an online Faculty Development Program in Assamese during 28 December 2020 and 02 January 2021.

The FDP in Assamese is proposed with the objective to acquaint the participants, teachers of Assamese literature and language, with the emerging trends in literary theory and criticism. The programme aims to deal with literature, particularly Assamese literature, and society in all its multiple aspects, in the broadest contexts possible – historical, cultural, artistic and philosophical. One of the primary goals of the FDP is to enable the participants to revisit the history of Assamese literature and its relationship with the nation-state and the myriad ways in which the “idea” of nation shape literature. The FDP will bring together academicians and experts representing various research fields: philosophy, history, cultural studies, literary studies, film studies, and gender studies and serve as a platform for sharing their knowledge, experiences and research findings to inform and renew the participants’ knowledge.

The Faculty Development Program will include both live sessions and pre-recorded video sessions disseminated in online mode. Each session will carry assignments. The entire program will be managed through Google Classroom and Google Meet. The applicants need to have access to laptop/desktop along with stable internet connection for participating in online live classes and to perform the online tasks during the program. Use of mobile phone is to be discouraged.

The Department of Assamese, Tezpur University invites faculty members of Universities, Colleges and Institutes of higher education for participation in the program. If the number of participants exceeds the intake capacity, the applicants will be shortlisted as per UGC and Gol norms.

The shortlisted candidates will have to pay a token amount of Rs. 500.00 within stipulated time, to be informed in due course of time.

Full-time participation is mandatory during the program and hence the candidates may obtain necessary permission from their controlling officers while applying for the same. E-certificate will be awarded to the participants after attending all the sessions and proper submission of all assignments.
