

Visitor's Award to Professor Pritam Deb of Tezpur University

In recognition to significant contribution in innovation and technology development, Prof. Pritam Deb, Department of Physics and Intellectual Property Rights (IPR) Chair Professor, IPR Cell, Tezpur University has been awarded with the prestigious Visitor's Award for Technology Development for the year 2020 for developing two-dimensional heterostructure based biodegradable film for food packaging.

The Visitor's Award is India's one of the most prestigious awards conferred annually to promote healthy competition amongst central universities and motivate them to adopt best practices from around the world in pursuit of excellence. The President of India, by virtue of various Acts of Central Universities is the head of Central Universities and is known as the "VISITOR".

Prof. Deb's patented inventions stand testimony to his expertise in producing extremely original application-oriented innovations. His overall research contribution exemplify innovativeness and originality in applications of fundamental principles of Physics to solve present critical issues in society and the country, overcoming the limitations of contemporary approaches.

It is worth mentioning that for his significant research contribution, Prof. Deb has also been conferred with several prestigious awards and held many distinguished Honorary/ Visiting positions in reputed international institutes. Professor Deb has provided effective and inspiring leadership in science and technology for almost two decades.

Conferring Visitor's Award by Hon'ble President of India at Rashtrapati Bhawan