Police Training College (PTC) Assam, Dergaon

Venue: Conference Hall, PTC, Dergaon

Creating awareness about Intellectual Property Rights amongst the police personnel can assist them in handling cases relating to IPRs in their day to day activities. In order to provide guidance in strengthening the enforcement mechanism of IPRs, TUIPR Cell has taken out a capacity building campaign at Police Training College Assam, Dergaon by organising a national level daylong workshop entitled "Capacity building for Enforcement and Adjudication of IPR" on 25th March, 2022. The programme was cordially organized by the instituted DPIIT IPR Chair at Tezpur University in association with the Cell for IPR Promotion and Management (CIPAM), New Delhi and Police Training College Assam, Dergaon. This daylong programme was organized as a part of the celebration of "Azadi Ka Amrit Mahotsav" where ninety seven (97) police personnel from four Training schools of the college participated to enrich themselves with various shades of IPRs.

The programme was started with a welcome speech from Shri Debasish Sarma (APS), Principal of the Police Training College Assam, where he introduced the subject IPR to the participants and also put his views on the importance of the programme in the present day's scenario of ever increasing market of pirated products. He concluded his inaugural speech by appreciating the effort of DPIIT IPR Chair, Tezpur University for taking this initiative of organizing such a timely programme.

Dr. Koushik Saikia, Research Assistant, TUIPR Cell then gave welcome to the present senior police personnel and the participants from the police training college in the programme. He mentioned that it was a long awaited programme for the TUIPR Cell. He let the participants know how the Cell had been planning to organize this programme realizing the need to build the capacity of the enforcement agency like police for efficient implementation of IPRs. In his welcome speech he also mentioned the role Tezpur University IPR Cell in promoting and creating awareness among the various IP creators, innovators in different parts of the region by physically reaching them.

Shri Mainul Islam Mandal (IPS) DIGP, Police training college Assam in his welcome address mentioned the power of inventions in the development and evolution of human civilization. He also stated the relevance of this programme to the police community and made the participants realized how they are integral part of the IPR system.

The inauguration session was concluded with the welcome speech of Prof. Pritam Deb, DPIIT IPR Chair Professor, Tezpur University. In his inaugural speech, he conveyed sincere thanks to all the participants and the Police Training College authority for proving supports and help in organizing the event. He also mentioned how TUIPR Cell had realized the importance of IPR enforcement long back in 2012 and organized programme with Mr. J. N. Choudhury IPS, then Director General of Police, Assam along with other dignitaries of senior Police officials and Judicial officers.

The first lecture of the Technical Session was delivered by Prof. P. Deb. In his lecture he introduced all the types of Intellectual Properties to the gathering and emphasized particularly on the part of the IPRs regime where the responsibilities of police force come. He specifically mentioned about the types of infringements related to copyright, trademark and Geographical Indication (GI) etc. He also urged on the issues of Gamucha, Muga Silk etc. and mentioned what are the measures we should take through IP protection to intact the pure form of these cultural identities of the state and at the same time earn the economic benefit. He thanked the DIGP and Principal of the Police Training College for showing interest in inclusion of IP related courses in the academic training syllabus of the college.

The second and last technical lecture was delivered by Shri Dhirendra Singh, Senior Associate, United IPR, New Delhi, who was joining the program on behalf of the CIPAM, New Delhi. In his lecture, he encompassed the area on legal aspects of IPRs. He explained the importance of different IPs and their protections for the benefits of creators and the society. His lecture was centered on the characteristics of Trademark, Industrial design and copyrights and how these can be protected under the Indian Laws. He also mentioned the responsibilities of police forces to develop sustainable IPR ecosystem.

The daylong programme was concluded with the vote of thanks of Inspector Shri Sibado Singpho. In his concluding remark he gave sincere thanks to the TUIPR Cell for organizing such an important and timely programme. He thanked the authority of the training college for providing logistic support and permission to carry out the event. He sincerely thanked the resource persons for being present and delivering their talks even after their tight schedule. At the end, he thanked all the participants for their presence and active participation in the programme.

About the Speakers:

Prof. Pritam Deb

Prof. Pritam Deb holds position of DPIIT-IPR Chair Professor in Tezpur University (Central University). He is a nationally recognized scholar and teacher in the fields of IPR, Patent, PCT and Trade secrets. He has been constantly providing technical supports guiding the innovators and creators for creating and securing an IPR conscious ecosystem. Besides teaching technical nuances to the students enrolled for the courses on IPR, he has also been working for initiating many industry academia research collaborations as part of the efforts initiated for creating a Pro-Industry research platform in the University. He did his Ph.D. in Nanoscience from Jadavpur University and post doctorate from TU Delft. His research achievements include nine patents and two software copyrights, besides 125 research papers in reputed journals. He spearheaded many innovative IPR activities in Tezpur University campus --Best Innovative Idea Competition, IPR Quiz, IP Day Talk etc. He has provided effective and inspiring leadership by preparing and implementing strategies of IPR Policy objectives e.g. Creating IPR Awareness, Administration and Management of IPR, Human Capital Development. He has received many international and national awards and recognitions in his career. Recently, in recognition to significant contribution in innovation and technology development, he has been adjudged for the prestigious Visitor's Award conferred by the President of India for Technology Development for the year 2020. He also held a number of visiting and honorary positions, including the Max Planck Fellow of Max-Planck-Institutfür Eisenforschung, Germany, APS-IUSSTF Professor at Rice University, USA etc.

Mr. Dhirendra Singh

Mr. Dhirendra Singh is an excellent attorney specializing in Intellectual Property Rights. With around 4 years of experience of practicing at boutique IP firm and as an in-house counsel for FMCG giant Dabur, Dhirendra's expertise extends to the entire cycle of IP (i.e. prosecution, opposition, litigation of contentious matters, enforcement and licensing). Although his focus is trademarks, copyrights and designs; he has also advised on several ancillary laws like Legal Metrology Act and Indian Contract Act.

As a pro-bono initiative, Dhirendra has also assisted in conducting training sessions on IPR laws and has delivered lectures on brand identification techniques to the Custom Authorities at various ports of India."
