Studying at women's studies department helped me grow and bloom in my formative years. During my tenure there as a student, I often found myself at crossroads where I differed from the pre-set narratives but the atmosphere was welcoming and conducive for varied opinions. I am thankful to the University for helping me build my own world view regarding 'Feminism' - which for me is a means towards a goal on which the foundation stone of an 'Egalitarian Society' can be laid.
