EMERGING TOPICS IN CHEMICAL SCIENCES

Organized by
Department of Chemical Sciences,
Tezpur University
December 12, 2025
Venue: Council Hall, Tezpur University

ABOUT THE SEMINAR

This seminar brings together researchers, faculty, and students to explore recent advancements in materials science, chemistry, and emerging technologies. The program is designed to facilitate the exchange of ideas, highlight innovative research, and promote collaboration. In honour of our esteemed Professor Tarun K. Maji, and celebrating his remarkable contributions, this seminar reflects his commitment to academic excellence and scientific growth marking our respect and gratitude on his superannuation.
